LIVE THE LITURGY: Exploring the Depths of Love and Truth

source: young-catholics.com

On this Divine Mercy Sunday, the second reading from the First Letter of John illuminates the profound nature of God's love and the imperative to love one another, mirroring the themes of mercy and forgiveness that this day celebrates. It beckons us to ponder our relationship with God, questioning if we truly grasp and embody His love and truth in our lives. This day offers a special opportunity for reflection on living in the light of God's love, challenging us to extend mercy, kindness, and forgiveness to those around us, just as we are embraced by Divine Mercy. It underscores the essence of Divine Mercy Sunday: to deepen our connection with God, enhance our relationships through love, and live authentically in His truth and light.

Donated items for our garage sale may be placed in the north side quilting room before or after mass on Saturdays in April. If these times don't work call Carol DeSotel at 964-2523 to schedule a time. We will not accept televisions and remember--if you wouldn't give it to a friend don't give it to us.

A Stewardship Moment The Christian community described in Acts understood and practiced total stewardship. St. Paul reports that the believers did not claim anything as their own, but held everything in common, and distributed to each whatever was needed.

“I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats this bread will live forever.” John 6:51

Prayer for a Child’s First Communion Lord Jesus, Bless the children coming forward to receive Holy Communion for the first time. May this day be an initial step into a life-long love of the Eucharist. Give them a hunger for this sacred food so that they turn to you for comfort, guidance and wisdom as they grow into full discipleship. Thank you for their innocence and goodness. May their hands, extended in anticipation of your Body and Blood, inspire all of us to cherish this sacred sacrament. Amen.
