LIVE THE LITURGY: ~

In this week's gospel Bartimaeus was persistent in his call to Christ. Even though others cautioned him to be silent, he continued to cry out in faith. He knew that Jesus could heal him, he just needed to have his voice heard. Bartimaeus already had the sight that he needed to know who Jesus is and how God was calling him to live. The miracle is for those who crowded around, blind to God's call in their lives.

Bartimaeus' faith will astound and convince them. Bartimaeus' wish was simple, he wanted to see. Because of his faith, his sight was restored to him. This week at Mass, imagine Jesus asking you the same question he asked Bartimaeus – "What do you want me to do for you?" Don't be afraid to tell him! Know that He is pleased when you come to Him with your every need.
