I will be leaving on Monday, August 5th and returning Wednesday, August 14. I will be traveling by train from LaCrosse, Wisconsin. In case of sickness or death, contact Deacon Pfaffly at 252-3553.

MISSION CO-OP COLLECTION

On the weekend of August 10 & 11 we will have a guest speaker/priest to speak to us of the Missionary Society of St. Columban – Rev. John Comiskey. His is originally from Brooklyn, New York, and was ordained a Columban Missionary priest in 1968. He spent over 30 years of his mission life in the Philippines. He is currently assigned to the Columban U.S. Regional Headquarters in Bellevue, Nebraska.

Today, Columbans continue to work around the world with the economically poor and marginalized. Following the devastating earthquake and tsunami in Japan, Columbans in that region have stayed with those they serve and are assisting with the ongoing relief efforts. When rebuilding begins, Columbans will be there assisting and aiding the people. In 2010, the disastrous floods in Pakistan left thousands homeless and destroyed acres of crops, Columbans organized medical mission teams to bring urgently needed assistance. Wherever they are needed by God’s people, Columbans answer the call to serve. ENVELOPES WILL BE PLACED IN YOUR PEWS AND COLLECTION WILL BE TAKEN UP AFTER COMMUNION.

HUMOR – When the store manager returned from lunch, he noticed his clerk's hand was bandaged, but before he could ask about the bandage, the clerk had some very good news for him. "Guess what, sir?" the clerk said. "I finally sold that terrible, ugly suit we've had so long!"

"Do you mean that repulsive pink-and-blue double-breasted thing?!" the manager asked.

"That's the one!"

"That's great!" the manager cried, "I thought we'd never get rid of that monstrosity! That had to be the ugliest suit we've ever had! But tell me, why is your hand bandaged?"

"Oh," the clerk replied, "After I sold the guy that suit, his seeing-eye dog bit me."
