Our Prayer For Those Being Confirmed

Thirty Two youth will be confirmed across our three parishes this weekend and I'd like to ask you to join me in praying for them. This is a fabulous opportunity for all of us to participate in the descent of the Holy Spirit upon these youths making them eager to pursue God's plan for their life.

Please join me in praying:

Dear God, we pray that you send your Holy Spirit upon all of these young people seeking to be confirmed. Please fill them with your strength, your courage, your guidance, your love, and your Spirit so that their hearts burn with an overwhelming passion for you.

-Thank you God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit for loving, protecting, strengthening, and guiding them.

-Just as Jesus relied on the power of the Holy Spirit, teach them to rely on the Holy Spirit too.

-Please send that same Holy Spirit upon them as well.

-We believe that the Holy Spirit wants to do in their life what he did in Jesus' life.

-Have the Holy Spirit move in their life.

-We know that the Holy Spirit is pouring God's love into their hearts.

-Have the fruit of that love being poured inward be ... love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, generosity, gentleness, modesty, chastity and self-control being expressed outward.

-We pray this in Jesus' name. Amen.

Thank you in advance for joining me in this prayer. May God bless you as well.

Fr. Marvin Bries

Mass Readings for September 13, 2020:

Reading 1: IS 55:6-9 Seek the LORD while he may be found, call him while he is near. Let the scoundrel forsake his way, and the wicked his thoughts; let him turn to the LORD for mercy; to our God, who is generous in forgiving. For my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways, says the LORD. As high as the heavens are above the earth, so high are my ways above your ways and my thoughts above your thoughts.

Responsorial Psalm: PS 145:2-3, 8-9, 17-18

R. The Lord is near to all who call upon him.

Every day will I bless you, and I will praise your name forever and ever. Great is the LORD and highly to be praised; his greatness is unsearchable. /R/

The LORD is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and of great kindness. The LORD is good to all and compassionate toward all his works. /R/

The LORD is just in all his ways and holy in all his works. The LORD is near to all who call upon him, to all who call upon him in truth. . /R/

Reading 2: PHIL1:20C-24, 27A Brothers and sisters: Christ will be magnified in my body, whether by life or by death. For to me life is Christ, and death is gain. If I go on living in the flesh, that means fruitful labor for me. And I do not know which I shall choose. I am caught between the two. I long to depart this life and be with Christ, for that is far better. Yet that I remain in the flesh is more necessary for your benefit. Only, conduct yourselves in a way worthy of the gospel of Christ.

R. Alleluia, alleluia. Open our hearts, O Lord, to listen to the words of your Son. R. Alleluia, alleluia. ACTS 16:14B

Gospel: MT 20:1-16A Jesus told his disciples this parable: “The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out at dawn to hire laborers for his vineyard. After agreeing with them for the usual daily wage, he sent them into his vineyard. Going out about nine o’clock, the landowner saw others standing idle in the marketplace, and he said to them, ‘You too go into my vineyard, and I will give you what is just.’ So they went off. And he went out again around noon, and around three o’clock, and did likewise. Going out about five o’clock, the landowner found others standing around, and said to them, ‘Why do you stand here idle all day?’ They answered, ‘Because no one has hired us.’ He said to them, ‘You too go into my vineyard.’ When it was evening the owner of the vineyard said to his foreman, ‘Summon the laborers and give them their pay, beginning with the last and ending with the first.’ When those who had started about five o’clock came, each received the usual daily wage. So when the first came, they thought that they would receive more, but each of them also got the usual wage. And on receiving it they grumbled against the landowner, saying, ‘These last ones worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us, who bore the day’s burden and the heat.’ He said to one of them in reply, ‘My friend, I am not cheating you. Did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage? Take what is yours and go. What if I wish to give this last one the same as you? Or am I not free to do as I wish with my own money? Are you envious because I am generous?’ Thus, the last will be first, and the first will be last.”

Thank You
